Youth Membership

What an exciting time to be part of Royston Museum!

We are setting up a new membership for young people who want to be involved with making their local museum the best museum ever!

Following the success of our Young Curators, we want to welcome more youngsters and encourage them to use the museum.

Members will get the opportunity to be part of one of the museum's youth groups. This will get them involved with projects and exhibitions, carrying out research as well as participating in hands-on activities, crafts and trips out.

All youth members will be able to get together for trips and on public event days.

Youth Membership costs just £25 for a year and is paid at the start of the year meaning you don't have to worry about monthly fees. This money will be used to fund the activities for the group.

Benefits of Membership

The main aim of the membership is to give young people a real chance to get involved with their local museum and to learn new skills, have fun and meet other youngsters.

Other benefits include:

- Free half term activities
- Half price on summer workshops
- Subsidised days out
- Free entry to the museum's event days

Members will get their own membership card and name badge to wear with pride and show they are a part of this brilliant group.

Please complete the application form and photo consent form and return it with the £25 membership fee to Sarah Russell, Curator at Royston Museum.

Payment can be made by cash in person or by cheque made payable to Royston Town Council.

If you have any queries, please contact Sarah Russell, Curator or Amy Judd, Museum Assistant on 01763 242587 or email curator@roystonmuseum.org.uk
